

Family Services Trust

Dear Friends

July-September 20

Greetings from Family Services Trust in New Delhi. Please see our activity report for these months. We are grateful for your impact on our "Brighter Future Learning Centres" and Food for the Poor program.

Our children, kids in the community, and other slum areas of Delhi receive nutritious meals daily.

Artwork and Creative expression classes are held on weekends to make our students more creative.

Brighter Future Learning Centre, New Pathshala for Farm laborers' children

Update from Family Services Trust

We're thrilled to share that our "Food for the Poor" project has distributed 30,960 meals over the last three months! This milestone wouldn't have been possible without the unwavering support of Rise Against Hunger India and our generous donors.

We're also grateful for the contributions to our Brighter Future Learning Centre, which have enabled us to launch a new initiative: Brighter Future Learning Centre (The Pathshala). This project provides educational support to farm labourers' children who aren't attending school, offering tutoring and a nurturing environment.

Help Us Grow!

To further enhance this project, we invite your support in the following areas:

- Uniforms for 100 Children
- Stationery and educational materials
- Desks and furniture
- Funds for upgrades and infrastructure development
- Bamboo for covering the Pathshala (Open air learning centre)
- Gently used children's clothes, shoes, and slippers
- Fresh fruits and healthy snacks
- Dry ration groceries for meals

These children and their families have lived under tarpaulin sheets for years, and hundreds attend government schools from this farm location. Your contribution will help create a brighter future for them 30-40% of children don't attend any formal schools as they are migrant clans who are travelling to and for a place in the northern region looking for livelihood.

Thank you again to our supporters, and we look forward to your continued partnership!
