

Family Services Trust

Dear Friend,

May-August 2025

Greetings from family services trust. We are grateful for your interest in our humanitarian initiatives. Through our dedicated partnerships with organizations such as Rise against Hunger, we have made a meaningful impact on the lives of vulnerable children and migrant families in Delhi.

Our Impact

Thanks to the unwavering support of our generous donors, we have accomplished remarkable goals, including: Since April 2025, we had distributed 24500 meals till now in July 2025 as distributing thousands of kilograms of essential dry rations to needy families, ensuring access to basic nourishment.

- Preparing and delivering between 4,000 and 5,000 nutritious meals each month for our Brighter Future children, their families, and other underprivileged communities helps combat hunger and malnutrition.

Our Call to Action

Today, we invite you to play a pivotal role in our mission. We urgently need your support to cook and deliver these meals and to volunteer your time on weekdays to assist in teaching and mentoring children from marginalized backgrounds.

Your engagement and contributions will enable us to help more children and share food with poor children:

Thank you to everyone who helped us with their regular pledges, contributions, in kind for our Brighter future learning centres, without your help and assistant it wasn't possible to carry on our mission to educate and care for less privileged children and do this on-going Food for The Poor feeding program. We continue to Appeal to one who reading our newsletter that they consider to support these fruitful projects.
